I. Administrative Arrangement for the Emergency Task Force on France

a. Title and Dates:

The Emergency Task Force on France was formally proclaimed on 31 May 1968, although personnel of the French Branch, Office of Current Intelligence, had begun sitrep production on 26 May. It continued in active operation until disbanded on 5 June 1968.

b. Creation:

25X1A

25X1A

On 31 May 1968 [REDACTED], Director, Office of Current Intelligence, designated [REDACTED] Chief, Western Europe Division, to be Chief of the Emergency Task Force on France.

c. Participation:

The task force was staffed by the personnel of the French Branch with some secondment of individuals from other branches who had a knowledge of the French situation. No other office as such was represented on the task force. The task force maintained close liaison with the Office of Strategic Research for data on the French military situation and with the Office of Economic Research for information on the economic situation and the effects of the strikes on the French economy. Personnel were in constant touch with analysts of the clandestine services, and with personnel of the Office of National Estimates with whom they coordinated the memoranda produced by the task force.
